In order to qualify for Iowa Rental Help, your household must not earn more than 50 percent of the area median income. (Information about each area median income is available at IowaRentalHelp.com.) In some specific and rare cases, eligibility varies. No money is paid directly to participants.

Please visit IowaRentalHelp.com to learn about eligibility in your area. Also, you may not receive assistance from Iowa Rental Help if you are already benefiting from another federal rent subsidy program.

Iowa Rental Help is the federal Homelessness Prevention and Rapid Re-Housing Program administered at the national level by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. The Iowa Finance Authority administers the program in Iowa in partnership with nonprofit organizations around the state.
